

MISS JOSEPHINE HOOPER, one of many Philadelphians at Hot Springs, Va. She's a speedy tennis player

"PROCTOR JACK," owned by John A. Foley, going over a fence in the King's Oak Steeplechase race, at the Huntingdon Valley Hunt. The event was won by "Ormead"

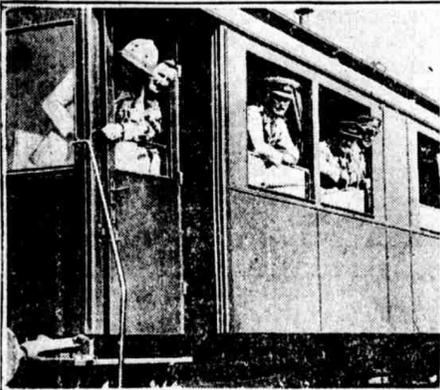

AT HUNTINGDON VALLEY HUNT. Mr. and Mrs. John Anderegg

WATCHING THE JUMPERS. Edward E. Marshall, owner of estate where Huntingdon Valley Hunt meeting was held; Mrs. Charles Churchman, Frederick Jones and Mrs. William H. Mulford

TWICE TOO MUCH. Matilda Kalikar had friend arrested when her Brooklyn apartment was robbed twice

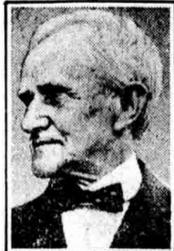

L.T. GEN. SIR CHARLES HARINGTON, commander in chief of the allied forces, and his staff in a railroad car on a reconnaissance tour on the outskirts of Constantinople

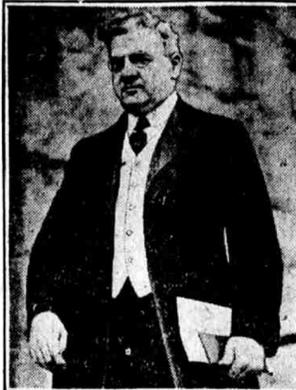

THOMAS T. CANN (left) forty-eight years a member, and Robert A. Bachelor, member for thirty-four years

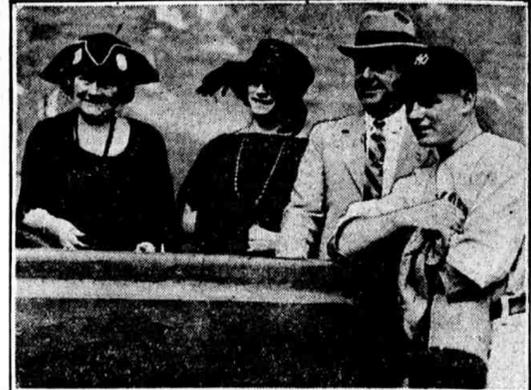

A. L. SEVENS, member for forty years

CHARLES MAVES, member for fifty years

THE REV. EDWIN FOREST HANN, pastor of church

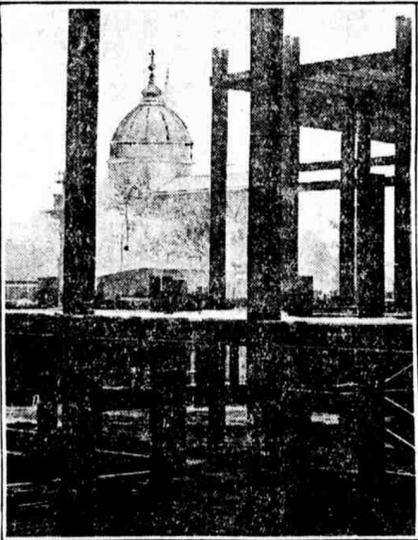

TALKING IT OVER. Waite Hoyt, Yankee hero of the 1921 series, and pitcher in Friday's game, discussing the outlook with his father, mother and sister Margaret

THEY WERE PRESENT yesterday morning as the 113th anniversary services were started in the First Methodist Episcopal Church, Camden

AN ACTIVE POLITICAL WORKER. Miss Sara McNeil, secretary of Organization Committee of the Republican Women's Club, answers telephone inquiries

THE CATHEDRAL and City Hall tower were caught by the camera as it pointed between the steel work of the new Philadelphia Library being built along the Parkway

LIEUT. HAROLD MAITLAND, U. S. Army Air Service, probable winner in contest for Pulitzer Trophy

RETURNS TO LONDON. Mrs. Douglass Canadine, head of the Girl Guides of London

LONDON POLICEMEN SHOW THEIR ABILITY AS HORSEMEN. Over one of the jumps at Imber Court, where the Metropolitan police have a training service

HONORED BY AMERICAN BOY SCOUTS. J. Guerin-Desjardins, Boy Scout Commissioner of France, arrives in Philadelphia

CAN YOU RECALL THIS BIT OF OLD PHILADELPHIA?

THE CASTLE IN SCHUYLKILL. It was located near Grays Ferry for many years, from where it was removed to Cornwells-on-Delaware several years ago. Send us your old Philadelphia photographs

W. F. SEABOLD, chief marshal of parade

SENATOR EDWARD F. LADD, of North Dakota, in Washington

ADMIRAL LI TING-HSING, who is the Minister of the Chinese Navy

MISS FANNY F. EWING

MISS ELLEN EWING MET BY THE CAMERAMAN at the autumn meeting of the Huntingdon Valley Hunt

HORSE LOVERS. Mrs. Sidney Hallowell and Miss Betty Bromley often seen at horse shows and hunts

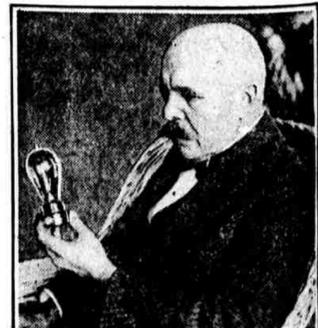

EASTERN TRAVELERS with flag they later raised over their new club house

ARTHUR B. EATON, president of the club

A NIFTY GAME. New York firemen demonstrated the way to play pushball with strong streams of water as the "pushing power" during a demonstration in Central Park

FRANCIS JEHL, the man who introduced electric lighting system, as discovered by Edison, to Europe in 1882